

Dana Sussman, JD, MPH (she/her/hers) joined NAPW in 2021 as Deputy Executive Director, and has been serving as Acting Executive Director since May of this year. Prior to joining NAPW, Dana served for six years as Deputy Commissioner of Policy and Intergovernmental Affairs at the New York City Commission on Human Rights, the agency charged with enforcing one of the most comprehensive anti-discrimination laws in the country.

Dana was previously a Senior Staff Attorney in the Anti-Trafficking Program at Safe Horizon, where she specialized in representing domestic workers who were trafficked and exploited by foreign officials in violation of federal law, and an Associate at Outten & Golden LLP representing employees in wage and hour cases and gender, pregnancy, disability, and LGBTQ discrimination matters. After graduating from Northeastern University School of Law, Dana served as a Legal Fellow at the Center for Reproductive Rights and clerked for Magistrate Judge James Orenstein in the Eastern District of New York. Dana holds a BA and MPH from Tufts University.
